

Hi-Desert Medical Center's Foundation Invites Public to 'Mad Tea' Party
May 18, 2008

Hi-Desert Medical Center's Foundation is presenting its first annual Mad Tea Party, Sunday, May 18, from 2 until 4 p.m. in the Helen Gray Education Center on the campus of Hi-Desert Medical Center.

The Tea will feature live entertainment, delicious tea delicacies, outrageous decorations and a "Curious-er Chapeau" contest. Children can enjoy readings from "Alice in Wonderland," provided by Debbie Medina from the Yucca Valley Branch Library and a Flamingo Croquet Tournament.

In addition to the prizes awarded for the smallest, largest, most beautiful and maddest hat in both adult and children's categories, tickets may be purchased for a raffle featuring a fabulous entertainment package, other gifts and artwork from local artisans.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the works of the Foundation.

Tickets for the Mad Tea Party are $20 for adults; $5 for children 6-12; and children under 6 are free. Seating is limited. Please call Foundation Director Eileen Berne at 760-366-6321 for reservations or for more information.
